

AQA, OCR, Edexcel

GCSE Science

GCSE Biology

Control of Blood Glucose
Concentration Questions

Name:

M M E

Mathsmadeeasy.co.uk

Total Marks: /19

Q1: What is diabetes?

(1 mark)

Q2: Discuss the ways a patient with type 2 diabetes can control their condition.

(3 marks)

Q3: Explain how the injection of insulin affects the body.

(3 marks)

Q4: Discuss how scientists aim to treat diabetes in the future.

(1 mark)

Q5: What drugs must Doctors give if patients have a pancreatic transplant?

(1 mark)

Q6: Discuss the differences between type 1 and type 2 diabetes.

(2 marks)

Visit <http://www.mathsmadeeasy.co.uk/> for more fantastic resources.

Q7: Why does a person with Type 1 diabetes needs to be careful when exercising?

(2 marks)

Q8: Give one of the common causes of type 2 diabetes.

(1 mark)

Q9: If left untreated, what can happen to a patient with Type 1 diabetes?

(1 mark)

Q10: Explain how drugs to treat type 2 diabetes work.

(2 marks)

Q11: How often should a person with Type 1 diabetes inject insulin as a minimum each day?

(1 mark)

Q12: What happens to a person with Type 1 diabetes blood sugars shortly after eating a meal?

(1 mark)