Source B   A cartoon published in many American newspapers, September 2001.

The giant in the doorway represents the United States.

A SLEEPING GIANT AWAKENS...

TERRORISM

Source C   From a speech made by British Prime Minister, Tony Blair, to Parliament shortly after the 11 September attacks in 2001.

> Killing so many innocent and defenceless people can never be justified. The world needs to stand together and bring those responsible to justice. President Bush has been careful not to strike first and only think about it afterwards.
>
> The United Nations Security Council has passed a resolution to combat terrorism and now we need to think about how to fight terrorists. We have to stop their training, funding and supply of weapons. We will do whatever is necessary.
